
Confidence-selected model per seed. Reference = generated pose for novel designs; crystal pose for the positive control.
These are computational screens, not experimental binding measurements.